Q.1 · Answer (B) Angry about something

To be 'up in arms' is to be angry about something and protesting against it.

Q.2 · Answer (D) A number of protestors were beaten by the police the night before.

SSC's key gives the only option with the right passive verb: the simple past 'beat' becomes 'were beaten', plural to agree with 'a number of protestors'. It also changes 'last night' to 'the night before', which a change of voice does not call for, but the other options change the tense.

The correct spelling is 'faithfully', with a double 'l'.

Q.4 · Answer (B) Declaration

An assertion is a confident statement of a fact or belief: a 'declaration'.

Q.5 · Answer (C) excessive

Q.6 · Answer (B) seriously

An adverb is needed to describe the verb 'think': we need to 'seriously' think about a digital detox.

The singular subject 'skill' needs a singular verb: 'Your skill lies in cheering up people'.

Q.18 · Answer (C) unaware
