Explanations

English Language (Basic Knowledge)

Q.1 · Answer (D) ACDB

A introduces Anush's fear of stray dogs, C tells how one evening he ran from a barking dog, D says the dog chased him, and B, his mother seeing the chase, comes last: ACDB.

Q.2 · Answer (D) than hot coffee

'Prefer' takes 'to', not 'than', before the thing not chosen: 'preferred orange juice to hot coffee or chilled grapes'.

Q.3 · Answer (C) As much as

'As much as' introduces a concession of degree, meaning however much I care for her; 'many' goes only with plural countable nouns, not with a verb such as 'care'.

Q.4 · Answer (A) The members of the team were received by the coach with great excitement.

The simple past 'received' becomes 'were received' with the plural subject 'the members of the team': 'The members of the team were received by the coach with great excitement.'

Q.5 · Answer (B) relocate

Families are moving away from Delhi: to 'relocate' is to move to a new place to live.

Q.6 · Answer (C) its

'Its' refers back to 'the increasing air pollution', a singular noun; 'it's' means 'it is', and 'their's' is not a word.

Q.7 · Answer (C) hit

To 'hit' a level is to reach it: the index had hit a three-year low.

Q.8 · Answer (D) severely

The adverb 'severely' describes the adjective 'polluted': a severely polluted atmosphere.

Q.9 · Answer (C) respiratory

Polluted air harms the lungs and airways, causing 'respiratory' (breathing) problems, which is why people wear masks outdoors.

Q.10 · Answer (B) Something promising is there in any difficult situation

'Every cloud has a silver lining' means that even a difficult or unhappy situation has some hopeful side.

Q.11 · Answer (C) Hymn

A hymn is a song of praise to God. An elegy is a poem of mourning, an ode a lyric poem addressed to a person or thing, and an epic a long narrative poem.

Q.12 · Answer (C) Entirely false and fabricated

Something 'made out of whole cloth' is invented entirely, with no basis in fact: wholly false and fabricated. The idiom says nothing about it being believable or convincing.

Q.13 · Answer (D) Unlikely

'Plausible' means seeming reasonable or likely to be true, so its opposite is 'unlikely'.

Q.14 · Answer (A) tumour

A tumour, an abnormal growth of tissue, can form in the stomach. A tuber is the swollen underground stem of a plant such as the potato, and a tremor is a shaking.

Q.15 · Answer (D) Everyone are

'Everyone' is singular and takes a singular verb, as the later 'his' shows: 'Everyone is very well equipped with his own weapons.'

Q.17 · Answer (A) Querulous

'Querulous', peevish and given to complaining, is the only option close to 'quarrelsome'. 'Ambiguous' means unclear, 'pragmatic' practical and 'opaque' not letting light through.

Q.18 · Answer (B) Balancing
SSC's key gives 'balancing': an adjustment is a small change made to get something right or into balance, as when accounts or scales are adjusted. 'Compromising' is arguable, but it fits only the narrower sense of settling a dispute or claim by mutual concession.

Q.19 · Answer (A) Planned
'Casual' means happening by chance or done without much thought, so its opposite here is 'planned'. 'Informal' is a synonym of 'casual'.

Q.20 · Answer (C) Navigetion
The correct spelling is 'navigation'.

Q.22 · Answer (A) funniest
'Funny' can mean strange or ironic, and the irony here is that the investigating officer himself was the culprit: 'The funniest part of this issue'.

Q.23 · Answer (B) The traveller inquired if there would be a shelter for strangers.
A yes-no question is reported with 'if' and the word order of a statement, and 'will' moves back to 'would' after the past 'inquired': 'The traveller inquired if there would be a shelter for strangers.'

Q.25 · Answer (C) Homogenous
'Homogenous', a variant of 'homogeneous', describes things of the same kind throughout. 'Homonymous' means having the same name, and 'homophony' is sameness of sound.
