Explanations

English Language (Basic Knowledge)

Q.1 · Answer (C) his subscription yet

'Members' is plural, so the pronoun that refers to it must be 'their': 'who haven't paid their subscription yet'.

Q.2 · Answer (A) Despised

'Revered' means deeply respected; its opposite is 'despised', looked down on. 'Cherished', 'esteemed' and 'valued' are close to it in meaning.

Q.3 · Answer (C) DBAC

D announces a rare sight in Mongolia, B describes it (three suns), A says the two outer suns were only reflections, and C gives the meteorological centre's account of how such a reflection forms: DBAC.

Q.4 · Answer (C) CABD

C introduces tea, and the steps follow in order: A (heat water and milk), B ('Now' add ginger, tea and sugar and boil), D (turn off the flame, strain and serve): CABD.

Q.5 · Answer (D) of

A thing belongs to a larger whole as 'part of' it: 'It is part of the Gharial Conservation association'.

Q.6 · Answer (A) are

The plural subject 'captive bred gharials' takes 'are' in the present passive: 'gharials are released'. 'Was' and 'is' are singular, and 'had' would give 'had released', making the gharials the ones doing the releasing.

Q.7 · Answer (C) It

The pronoun 'It' stands for the sanctuary, the subject of the passage: 'It is located at the Ken River'. 'These' is plural, and 'This' or 'That' would seem to point back to the conservation work just described.

Q.8 · Answer (D) see

Visitors go to 'see' a sight such as the Raneh Falls. 'Look' would need 'at', 'regard' means consider, and 'climb' does not suit a waterfall.

Q.9 · Answer (C) closed

A place shut to the public is 'closed' to visitors: the sanctuary is closed during the monsoon. 'Locked' and 'finished' do not suit a sanctuary, and it is visitors, not a place, that are 'banned'.

Q.10 · Answer (B) Cockpit

The cockpit is the compartment from which the pilot flies an aircraft. The fuselage is the aircraft's main body, the canopy the transparent cover over a cockpit, and a chassis the base frame of a vehicle.

Q.11 · Answer (B) Mother told Avika to finish those sums before she went to the park.

An order is reported with 'told ... to': 'these' becomes 'those', 'you' becomes 'she' and, after the past reporting verb, 'go' becomes 'went'.

Q.12 · Answer (B) Deliceous

The correct spelling is 'delicious'.

Q.13 · Answer (C) were closed

'Last Saturday' fixes the action in the past, so the simple past is needed, not the present perfect: 'All the shops and restaurants were closed during the bandh last Saturday.'

Q.14 · Answer (B) doesn't she

A positive statement takes a negative question tag, with 'does' for a verb in the simple present: 'Avika understands French, doesn't she?'

Q.16 · Answer (C) To relax

'Cool it' is an informal way of telling someone to calm down and relax.

Q.17 · Answer (D) Dismal
'Glum' means gloomy and dejected, so 'dismal' is closest. 'Bright' is nearly its opposite, and 'afraid' and 'nervous' describe fear, not gloom.

Q.18 · Answer (C) heaved
One 'heaves a sigh of relief': the set phrase for letting out a long, deep sigh.

Q.19 · Answer (B) Change the subject immediately
To 'go off at a tangent' is to turn suddenly from the subject to something quite different.

Q.20 · Answer (C) For reaching the station, an auto was hired by them.
The simple past 'hired' becomes 'was hired', and the object 'an auto' becomes the subject: 'an auto was hired by them'.

Q.21 · Answer (D) Growth
'Decay' means rotting or gradual decline; its opposite is 'growth'. 'Decline', 'rotting' and 'corrosion' are close to it in meaning.

Q.22 · Answer (B) pronounced
'Pronounced' means very noticeable: 'a pronounced accent' is the usual phrase for an accent that is easy to hear. 'Widespread' describes how far something has spread, not how strong an accent is.

Q.23 · Answer (A) have walked
'Someone' is singular and takes a singular verb: 'Someone has walked away with my umbrella.'

Q.24 · Answer (B) Orchard
An orchard is a piece of land planted with fruit trees. A vineyard grows grapevines, a grove is a small group of trees and a nursery raises young plants.

Q.25 · Answer (B) Sumptuous
'Opulent' means rich and luxurious, as 'sumptuous' does. 'Poor' is nearly its opposite, and 'economical' and 'depressed' do not fit.
