Explanations

English Language (Basic Knowledge)

Q.1 · Answer (D) ongoing

'Ongoing' means still in progress, which suits a festival whose performers are taking the stage this evening. A 'postponed' festival would not be under way, and 'foregone' and 'onset' do not fit.

Q.2 · Answer (D) To be in low spirits

To be 'under the weather' is to feel slightly unwell or in low spirits.

Q.3 · Answer (C) Anya suggested that we sit out in the sun.

A suggestion with 'Let's' is reported with 'suggested that', and the past reporting verb 'said' keeps it in the simple past: 'Anya suggested that we sit out in the sun.'

Q.4 · Answer (B) Philanthropist

An altruist is a person who selflessly works for the good of others: a 'philanthropist'.

Q.5 · Answer (C) are passionate

'Who' stands for the plural 'two chefs' and the passage is in the present tense, so the verb is 'are'; the adjective 'passionate' (not the adverb 'passionately') goes before 'about': 'who are passionate about promoting zero waste'.

Q.6 · Answer (B) in

Cooking takes place 'in' restaurants or at home: 'in' is used for being inside a place.

Q.7 · Answer (B) product

The blank needs a noun naming the item of food whose every part is used: 'a food product'. A 'food producer' is a person or firm, 'food production' is the process, and 'productive' is an adjective.

Q.8 · Answer (A) just

'Just' means simply: instead of peeling carrots you can simply scrub the surface lightly. 'Rarely', 'seldom' and 'never' would contradict the advice.

Q.9 · Answer (B) to reuse

'Ways' takes a to-infinitive with the base form of the verb, here paired with 'recycle': 'ways to reuse and recycle by-products'. 'Redone' and 'reused' are participles, and 'redo' does not fit the sense.

Q.10 · Answer (A) you'd better pay

'Had better' ('d better) is followed by the base form of the verb: 'you'd better pay online immediately'.

Q.11 · Answer (C) Refined

'Coarse' means rough or crude; its opposite is 'refined'. 'Vulgar' is close in meaning.

Q.12 · Answer (A) Ghetto

A ghetto is a part of a city, especially a slum area, lived in by a minority group. A suburb is an outlying residential district and a metropolis a large city.

Q.13 · Answer (C) I was told by the vet to put eye drops and ointment in my pet's eyes.

The object 'me' becomes the subject 'I', and the simple past 'told' becomes 'was told': 'I was told by the vet to put eye drops and ointment in my pet's eyes.'

Q.14 · Answer (B) To be the last in a series of events leading one to feel that it is intolerable

'The straw that broke the camel's back' is the last of a series of small burdens or problems, after which a situation becomes unbearable.

Q.15 · Answer (A) Privilige

The correct spelling is 'privilege'. 'Mileage', 'gait' and 'truism' are spelt correctly.

Q.16 · Answer (C) Ignore

To 'contemplate' is to think about something deeply; its opposite is to 'ignore' it. 'Meditate' is close in meaning.

Q.17 · Answer (D) Heart-wrenching
'Heart-wrenching' means causing great sadness. 'Heart-stopping' means thrilling or frightening, 'heart-searching' is close examination of one's own feelings, and a 'heart-to-heart' is a frank talk.

Q.18 · Answer (B) BCAD
B introduces the film, C says it follows a young reindeer's first year, A tells how his mother guides him at the start of his journey, and D adds the friend who shares it: BCAD.

Q.19 · Answer (C) Firecrackers have seized by the government
A past participle alone should describe the firecrackers: 'Firecrackers seized by the government went off ...'. 'Have seized' adds a second main verb and the wrong, active sense.

Q.20 · Answer (D) while practice for the Khelo India Games
After 'while' a participle is needed: 'while practising for the Khelo India Games'. ('12 year old' would usually be hyphenated, '12-year-old', but that is a matter of punctuation, not grammar.)

Q.21 · Answer (D) step back
To 'step back' from a role is to withdraw from it, which fits leaving the United Kingdom and limiting their royal commitments. To 'step up' is to increase or take on more, and to 'step in' is to intervene.

Q.22 · Answer (D) CDBA
C introduces the film and its maker, D says it revolves around Suzan staying with her grandmother, B has Suzan meet Rana there, and A tells how their friendship develops: CDBA.

Q.23 · Answer (C) Arrogant
'Haughty' means proud and looking down on others: 'arrogant'. 'Humble' is its opposite.

Q.25 · Answer (A) are more likely
The plural subject 'young adults' takes 'are', and the adjective needed before 'to develop' is 'likely' (probable): 'young adults are more likely to develop an interest'.
