Explanations

English Language

Q.1 · Answer (C) Temparary

The correct spelling is 'temporary'.

Q.2 · Answer (D) To take interest in others' affairs

To 'poke one's nose into' something is to meddle in matters that are not one's concern: to take an interest in others' affairs.

Q.3 · Answer (D) so as to give

Purpose is expressed by 'so as to' with the base form of the verb: 'so as to give him the appearance of a wise owl'.

Q.4 · Answer (D) Despite of being

'Despite' takes no 'of': 'Despite being a close friend' (or 'In spite of being').

Q.5 · Answer (C) Liberal

'Restrictive' means limiting freedom; its opposite is 'liberal', allowing freedom. 'Closed' is nearer a synonym.

Q.6 · Answer (A) Martial

'Martial' means relating to soldiers or war, as in 'martial law'; 'marital' means relating to marriage.

Q.7 · Answer (B) care

To 'neglect' is to fail to look after something; its opposite is to 'care' for it. 'Fail' and 'omit' are close to synonyms.

Q.8 · Answer (D) The government will install Wi-Fi hotspots in remote areas by 2022.

The future passive 'will be installed by the government' becomes the active 'The government will install', with 'Wi-Fi hotspots' as its object.

'Neither of them' is singular and takes a singular verb: 'neither of them was responsible'.

A hypocrite pretends to be what he is not, above all to have virtues he lacks.

Q.14 · Answer (B) trecherous

The correct spelling is 'treacherous'.

'Despite' signals a contrast: the rules are essential in spite of their 'limitations'. 'Support', 'advantages' and 'benefits' would not contrast with 'essential'.

After 'said', the simple past 'did not see' becomes the past perfect 'had not seen', 'I' becomes 'he' and 'last night' becomes 'the previous night'.
